Manager's Corner

WOW! What a month July turned out to be! Thank you all for coming out and enjoying our new activities, look forward to seeing you this month!

It is hot out... Remember to stay hydrated, drink plenty of water and take small breaks to cool off, especially if you are doing yard work. It is great pool weather, so come out to enjoy one of the pools!

Remember to sign in any guests and please return any red bands back to the office once they leave.

A few reminders:

When at Regency pool please use outside doors for restrooms. Wet tile floors in clubhouse are harmful to the body.

Keep the neighborhood clean and please pick up after your dog!

Do not feed the ducks or stray animals.

Please do not park on grass or block driveways and sidewalks.

Keep homesite and carports free of clutter, and do not forget it is hurricane season, so stay prepared.

And as always enjoy the sunshine!

Clowning Around

The idea of clowns often conjures images of someone in white makeup with a colorful wig and oversized shoes. However, this is only one type of clown. Clowning is more about the actions and behavior of a performer than makeup, wigs or red noses.

The earliest reports of clowning date back to Egypt in 2400 B.C., and from the pantomimes in ancient Greece to court jesters in the Middle Ages, clowns have been peppered throughout history. A form of comedic street theater called commedia dell'arte thrived in Italy from the 1500s to the 1700s. In the first years of the 19th century, clowns began appearing in circus shows.

The rise of silent films in the early 1900s gave clowning a wider audience and produced stars such as Buster Keaton, Charlie Chaplin and Harold Lloyd.

Many prestigious clown colleges still exist worldwide. The Ringling Brothers and Barnum & Bailey Clown College trained clowns in the Ringling style from 1968 to 1997. Famous graduates include illusionist Penn Jillette, actor David Strathairn and comedian Bill Irwin. Irwin has done clown work on stage and screen, most notably in his show "The Regard of Flight." He has also introduced children to his brand of clowning on "Sesame Street."

Brain Bender: Class Clown

Buttons, Giggles and Scooter are three clowns who star in the Crazy Daisy Circus. Each clown performs a solo act in one of three rings that are lined up in a row inside the big top.

Using the clues provided, can you figure out each clown's talent, and in which ring their act takes place?

- The clown who makes balloon animals is in the center ring.
- The juggling clown performs in a ring next to Scooter.

- Giggles is not the unicycle rider. Her ring is somewhere to the right of Buttons' ring.
